Principal's Message

May the class of '31 find this little book the the source of countless happy memories. As the members of the group disperse to all points may this volume remain with each to remind and to bind throughout all time.

The imprint of Wa-Hi upon each graduate can never be deleted. Thousands now bear it and contribute their part, we proudly believe, to the upbuilding of the culture of their generation. I have known this class well. It is a real satisfaction to know that it will not break faith with the long line of young people who were, and the remaining classes who are, the school.

W. A. Lacey

Foreword

This book was compiled as a testimony to the spirit of Wa-Hi and a recognition of those alumni whose services to society are the greater epitomy of that spirit, as a record of lasting friendship and hours of joy and toil, and as a service to Wa-Hi——a Wa-Hi that has a spirit—an institution of learning whose future shall bear out the promise of its past. If all this has been embodied in the pages of this book, then our purpose has been accomplished.

Friendship is a chain of gold
Shaped in God's all perfect mold,
Each link a smile, a laugh, a tear,
A grip of the hand, a word of cheer,
As steadfast as the ages roll,
Binding closer soul to soul,
No matter how far, or heavy the load,
Sweet is the journey on Friendship's Road.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Cub, organized in 1928 attempts to meet the need of a dramatic department in the school. The meetings consist chiefly of discussion of problems connected with the stage and an occasional presentation of a one-act play. Considerable time is devoted to work on the various dramatic productions of the school. This year the club sponsored the Christmas assembly, the three act comedy, "Love-in-a-Mist", and four original one-act plays. The social events have included home meetings, a picnic, a dance, and a skating party. The activity of the club is due to the capable leadership of Miss Reed, the advisor.

CLASSICAL CLUB

The Classical Club has as its object growth in culture, in knowledge, and in kindness and sympathy toward others. The club has successfully carried out its purpose this year. Among other worth while things sponsored by the club was the play, "The Trojan Women," which was presented in the high school auditorium, October 17, 1930. The club owes much gratitude to Miss McIntyre for her valuable aid in all its work.

OFFICERS' CLUB

The Officers' Club is composed of the best cadets in the Wa-Hi Battalion. Its purpose is to promote good fellowship, cooperation, and efficiency among the officers of the unit. The Military Ball, and the Officers' Banquet are among the leading social events of the year. Colonel Holmes has proved an efficient advisor, whose excellent counsel has helped to place the Officers' Club in its present standing.

W W CLUB

The W. W. Club is an honorary organization made up of "letter men" from football, basketball, and track. The main duty of the members of the club is to see that the conduct of the student body at athletic games is satisfactory. Its social functions consist of an annual smoker and picnic. The members of the club express their appreciation for the work done by Mr. Dimmick, athletic director.

MATH CLUB

The Math Club combines a serious study of mathematics in relation to science and modern business and professional occupations with a congenial social program. Its meetings, held twice monthly, emphasize these features. This year, for the first time, a limited number of freshmen and sophomores have been made eligible to membership. Outstanding in interest in the club are the chess tournament that takes place in the spring, and the annual picnic which closes the year's activities. Advisors are Miss Blynn and Miss Kirk.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The aims of the Industrial Arts Club are to inform the members of the practical uses of normal arts and to promote friendship among the Industrial Arts students. The club holds meetings every two weeks to take care of the business and to give the members opportunities to hear speakers who are interested in the work of the group. One meeting each month is devoted to social interests. Mr. Myers is the advisor to whom the boys are greatly indebted.

AG CLUB

The Wa-Hi Ag Club, a member of the national organization, has been outstanding in its achievements. Forty-four boys comprise the membership of the group that has for its aim four degrees toward which the boys work. These are: Green Hand, Future Farmer, State Farmer, National Farmer. The requirements for the last two degrees are very rigid. The aim and ideal of the group is to learn to co-operate in farming, marketing and buying. From the Ag Club, judging teams are sent to local and state fairs. The outstanding trip of the year is the Smith-Hughes Conference held each spring at W. S. C. to which three chosen delegates are sent. Mr. Lybcker is the very capable advisor of this club.

RADIO STUDY CLUB

The Science Club this year practiced Radio Study. A course of lesson sheets was secured from WCFL. Several of the boys are studying short-wave and some have passed the examinations and obtained operators' licenses. Mr. Tack has worked faithfully and loyally to promote the Radio Study Club.

O. G. A.

Order of Gregg Artists is a club for girls in the Commercial Department of the high school. Membership in the club is obtained by writing in the junior year an artistic specimen of short hand from copy submitted by "The Gregg Writer." The club meets twice a month, once for an educational program and once for a social time. The educational meetings comprise practical and theoretical studies of business. The club is meant to be educational for girls who are interested in commercial lines, but its primary object is to promote good-will, friendliness, and happy times among its members. The girls are greatly indebted to Miss Gertrude Young, the advisor.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Character, scholarship, leadership and service form the basis of requirements and ideals for members of the National Honor Society. The local organization, which received its charter in 1925 through the zeal of its former advisor, Miss Maxwell, emphasizes these four principles. The National Honor Society has this year a capable and efficient advisor in Miss Draper.

GIMMEL TETH SOCIETY

The Gimmel Teth Society has, since its organization, played an important part in the social and intellectual life of the school. In addition to the regular business meetings, educational and social programs are held. The chief educational theme during the past year has been the study and appreciation of art. Two social events consisting of a dance and a party have been given each semester. The club has been very fortunate this year in having Miss Bickelhaupt for its advisor.

EL ADREA

The El Adrea Society is both an educational and social organization. Every month an educational meeting has been held at the home of a member. The chief educational theme during the past year has been the study of the book, "Famous American Girlhoods." The social events of the year include home meetings, a dinner, a party, and two dances. Miss Hamm, the advisor, has been a faithful worker for the success of El Adrea.

SENATE

The Senate, which was organized in 1915, has successfully completed another year of activity. The purpose of the club, which was originally to study parliamentary law and debate changed in 1929 to that of a service and social club. The Senate has this year a capable and efficient advisor in Mr. Clark, who deserves a great amount of praise.

HI-Y CLUB

The Walla Walla Hi-Y Club, an affiliate of the National organization sponsored by the Y. M. C. A., is an elective club limited in membership to a small percentage of the boys of the three upper classes. Scholarship, citizenship, and a good attitude toward things worth while are used as a basis for membership selection. It is the aim of the club to foster every activity that will promote the best interests of Wa-Hi. The advisory council is composed of Mr. Paul Reed, faculty advisor, Gerwyn Jones, Y. M. C. A., and Rev. McConnell, ministerial.

ATHLETAE

Athletae is an honorary athletic society inviting to membership all girls who have earned athletic letters, either in basketball or personal efficiency. This society aims to further girls' athletics; to develop good sportsmanship, to foster class and school loyalty, and to raise scholarship. Miss Norris, the Physical Education teacher, has proven an efficient advisor to the club this year.

TILLICUM CAMP FIRE

Tillicum was the first camp fire group to be established in the Walla Walla High school. It was organized under the able leadership of Miss Blynn. The purpose of Tillicum is to foster companionship, and to create a spirit of cooperation and friendship among the girls. The program for the year consists of a group of educational, business, and social meetings. Campfire work is encouraged by ceremonial meetings which are given several times each year. Miss Dorothy Chandler is the very capable advisor of Tillicum.

OKIHI CAMP FIRE

To create a spirit of cooperation and to set high goals toward which the members may work are the aims of the Okihi Camp Fire which is composed of seventeen active and three honorary members. Guardians of the group are Miss Mary Scholl and Mrs. Heaton to whom much credit is due for their guidance in the work and play of the club.

WATANOPA CAMP FIRE

Watanopa Camp Fire has spent a very profitable year. Every month an educational meeting has been held at the home of a member. The social events for the year include home meetings, parties and hikes. At Christmas time, the Watanopa Camp Fire helped the poor in many ways. This group is sponsored by Virginia Robbs.

WAUKEENAH CAMP FIRE

The members of the Waukeenah Camp Fire feel that they have made splendid progress under the capable leadership of Mrs. Thomas Gose, Guardian, and Miss Ann Martin, Assistant Guardian. During the past year Waukeenah participated in the following Camp Fire activities: the Grand Council Fire and the Camp Fire Bazaar.

AYITA CAMP FIRE

Ayita Camp Fire, one of the oldest of the camp fire groups in Wa-Hi, has for its aim the making of better citizens of its members. It is an organization that stresses participation in activities and consideration for others. To put these ideals into practice the group does its part in aiding the needy of the city at Thanksgiving and Christmas each year. Ayita Camp Fire brings to a close a successful year under the capable leadership of Miss Marjorie Douglas and Miss Caroline Peters of Whitman College.

The purpose of the Girls' Federation is to create a spirit of cooperation and friendship among the Wa-Hi girls. Although the Federation is comparatively a new organization in the high school, it has proved its worth during the short time of its existence. Each year one hundred dollars is raised to help some worthy cause in the school. Miss Martha Young, Dean of Girls, has been a great aid to the members of the Federation in everything they have attempted.

The Wa-Hi Journal is one of the greatest of Wa-Hi's activities. School news, school pep, and school interest are to a great extent dependent upon the efforts maintained by the members of the Journal Staff. To Raymond Puette is due a great deal of credit for the success of the Journal this year.

Wa-Hi was greatly handicapped this year in football by the loss through graduation of practically the entire 1930 team. Much credit is due Coaches Dimmick and Bruns, who built an almost new team from inexperienced material. By the latter part of the season a strong team had been developed, and the Wa-Hi Blue Devils closed the season by defeating the outstanding teams of Dayton and Yakima. Mr. Emory Bruns was added to Wa-Hi's staff as an assistant to Mr. Dimmick. "Doc" showed himself to be a man of sportsmanship and a good football line coach.

"The Bells of Beaujolais," an operetta in two acts written by David Stevens and Lewis Coere, was presented by one hundred and fifty students of Wa-Hi under the direction of Mrs. H. C. Tilley, March 27 and 28, in the high school auditorium.

The story was charmingly told in the clever songs and dialogue of the operetta. A party of seasick Americans land on the island of Beaujolais, which they take by storm with their captivating manners. The peasant people respond by creating a merry mix-up in the love affairs of the young Americans. Eventually everything is straightened out and the play ends happily.

Five choruses with the aid of the Wa-Hi Orchestra supported the cast admirably and added much to the attractiveness of the production. The orchestra which is composed of forty-two members worked as diligently as the cast in order to make the operetta one to be remembered by the people who saw it.

All honor is due to Mrs. Tilley, who for the past four years has produced operettas of undeniable merit. Her unfaltering labor toward the improvement of these productions which have so greatly benefited Wa-Hi, is deeply appreciated by the Senior class.

Senior Calendar

FEBRUARY 19—First Senior Frolic. Everyone turned out to enjoy the first frolic of the semester. A three piece orchestra furnished peppy music for the dancers.

MARCH 20—Second Senior Frolic. Another social success for the Senior class, but, oh, what a financial flop!

APRIL 16—Third Senior Frolic. They're getting plentiful. Anyway, the girls had a good time. They all wore their new Spring dresses so charmingly that the sale of polar bars rose amazingly fast.

APRIL 24—The Senior Play "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy," a comedy that brought a laugh with every line. The humorous story relates the love affair of an eminent authority on trap-door spiders and the way he wooed and won his lady fair. The cast was composed of seniors who were all experienced in dramatics, which naturally added to the attractiveness of the production. Here's for bigger and better senior plays.

MAY 14—Fourth and last senior frolic of the semester. The farewell dance sponsored by the class of '31. A huge success in every way. Clever feature dances by high school students were presented during intermission period. The orchestra drew everyone to the dance floor. A big time was had by all.

MAY 27-18—Senior Exams. The day of reckoning. Tears, fears, and some failures But what a relief when it's all over. Now all the seniors have to do is let their finger nails grow out again and try to collect their book deposits, which is always something to look forward to.

MAY 29—Senior Day. Whoopee time for the would be graduates. One side, please, underclassmen. It's not every day in the year we get the run of the school.

MAY 31.—Baccalaureate. Amen.

JUNE 4—Commencement. At last, after four years of toil the great day arrived—Mammy!

'Twas ne'er entailed from sire to son."—Gay

Class History

The class of '31 can look back with pride to its first year in Wa-Hi when, as a body of inexperienced freshmen it began a career which has culminated in one of the most successful four years ever spent by any class in Wa-Hi.

As freshmen the class elected Howard Becker and Tom Bennison as presidents for the first and second semesters respectively. Later Howard distinguished himself by becoming president of the Student Body. During its first year in Wa-Hi, the present graduating group sponsored two social functions, a frolic and a class party, both of which were well supported.

In the Sophomore year the presidency was held by Merrell Davis and Bill McDaniel. Several frolics and a Sophomore Carnival were sponsored during the year. The Sophomores at that time had more students on the semester honor rolls than any other class.

As Juniors the students elected Jim Cunningham and Howard Becker to the chief executive office of the class.

During the past year the Senior class has been unusually active. Lawrence Minnick, elected by popular vote of the students, guided the class through a highly successful year. Through his and Ruth Church's efforts the first Senior Year Book was published. This class is not only the largest of any ever graduated from this school, but moreover ranks among the highest scholastically. No previous graduating class has included so many National Honor students. It is also interesting to note that there are more boys who are honor students in the Class of '31 than found in any graduating class of earlier years.

A most interesting play was presented by the Senior class and the proceeds went toward purchasing a gift for Wa-Hi. The class has sponsored four frolics which were quite successful.

A new type of commencement program was adopted by the class, the exercises of this year being conducted solely by the members of the class instead of inviting an outside speaker.

The Senior class owes much of its occomplishments to the untiring aid of its advisor Miss Esther Brieholz and the cooperation displayed by the students of the graduating class of '31.
